

Charles A. O. Okusanya

December 11, 1971 - August 15, 2019

Charles Olufemi Okusanya

was born to Cole and Betty Okusanya on December 11, 1971. He was the oldest of three children. Charles was born in St. Paul MN; he grew up in Lagos Nigeria and moved to the United States to further his education after high school. He was a big family man to say the least. He made it is ambition to make sure people around him were happy and brought smiles to many people. He had this time where he would give nicknames to people and the funny thing was that it stuck with them and people just loved it. His charm and sense of humor made him very easy to be around him. In every room he walked in, you could not help but notice, as he was the life of the party. Always full of life and joy. Some of the words that describe Charles are, caring, funny, loving, big hearted and dedicated to say a few. He always had a way of putting other people first and never hesitated to make sacrifices for his family. He always made sure his three kids know how much he cared and how proud he was to be their father. Some things Charles enjoyed were cars, movies, vacation with the family and good food because he sure loved to cook. You can always find him behind the grill at any BBQ outing. Charles, we will miss your laughs and jokes. We will miss your smiles and your kindness towards others. We know that this loss is huge, but we are comforted knowing that you are in a better place smiling down on us. Charles is survived by his mother Betty Okusanya; Brother Anthony Okusanya; Sister Angela Azeez and his wonderful children Myles, Itunu and Toyosi Okusanya.
