Kenny Joseph Mirville

April 22, 1962 - July 20, 2022

Kenny Joseph Mirville was born on April 22, 1962, to Solon Mirville Sr and Odette (Mitton) Mirville, in Port Au Prince, Haiti. Kenny attended school in France, Africa, and Chile due to his father's travelling occupation with the United Nations, and he spoke Creole, French, English and Spanish. Kenny's family settled in New York, where Kenny graduated from high school, although Kenny proudly maintained his Haitian citizenship. It was in New York that he met his best childhood friend, Eddie Nelson. Kenny attended the University of Minnesota for computer management and social studies, which led to a range of occupations relating to insurance, health, and accounting. He enjoyed working and had many friendships with work colleagues.

Kenny was charming, talkative, stylish and the perfect combination of fun and serious. Kenny loved music, cooking, trying new ethnic foods, and enjoyed camping and fishing. He cherished his family and his friends; and never missed reaching out to them for birthdays, holidays, and other special occasions. It was with great pride that Kenny maintained his sobriety for more than ten years, however Kenny's greatest joy was his daughter, Melanie, born during his marriage to Catherine Caitlin.

Kenny was loved by many and will be forever missed
