Jack served in the Army during the Korean War. He worked for 46 years as a National Sales Executive in the printing industry. Jack enjoyed life—golfing, hunting, fishing, and travel. His favorite pastimes were tending to his flower gardens and feeding the birds as well as duck families that followed him around the yard. Jack was active in the community as a volunteer at Prince of Peace Lutheran Church and the Elks. He also served as groundskeeper for his neighborhood association.

Jack loved people and cherished gatherings with family, friends, and neighbors. Many special memories were created over the years. Jack will be remembered for his love of family, always being willing to help others, and sharing his life stories. He lived his life as a man of faith and integrity. He will be dearly missed by so many family members and friends.
