James Lyle Krumrie

November 27, 1965 - August 27, 2025

James “Jim” Krumrie of Rosemount passed from this life peacefully on August 27, 2025 after a two year struggle with multiple myeloma. He was preceded in death by father, Lyle. He is survived by mother, Nancy; brother, Chuck (Susan) and numerous cousins. A camping and traveling enthusiast, Jim melded his love of the outdoors and the open road with a fascination for geography and geology.

He was gifted with a quick and irrepressible wit and a generous heart. He had a keen sense of right and wrong, responsibility and respect. He suffered neither hypocrisy nor injustice gladly. He always had his nose in a book, with tastes running from political science to history to outdoor survival to muscle cars. He enjoyed social events with friends and was such a fan of cinema that Chuck nicknamed him the “Movie Maven”.

He confronted the challenge of his cancer with a remarkable courage and perspicacity. Always gracious, always loving, Jim was fiercely loyal to his family and friends. He never forgot a kindness and never dwelled on a slight. His signature phrase was “I appreciate that”.

In lieu of flowers, donations to the American Cancer Society are requested.
